

RAZIEL by Bhogy

C#m C#m E F#

I'm a pink Flamingo, I'm balanced on one leg but I will go
On my head, a laurel crown, the paw in the earth which is so brown
I will go, I will go, down, on the top, forward and I will stop

...on one leg, I am balanced on one leg

I take root like a tree, deep so deep, to the knee Have you heard something about the signs? The three signs, the three signs, I saw them three times

The rainbow shows the way, follow the indigo ray, follow the indigo
ray

I am a Peacock of the day, I'll fly away, far from the way
With my wings, I'll fly away, far from the usual way
If I stay, if I stay, I won't find out what the future will say
If I stay, on the way, If stay, I won't find out what the future will say Imago, where are you go? Imago, where are you go?

Do you know Raziel? I'm glad to meet this archangel
I connect with my guide, the keeper of secrets is the guide
My third eye is open, my heart is open
My third eye is open, to the world I have chosen

My third eye is open, my heart is open

I can be whoever I want, I can do whatever I want Feel the spirit of the pink Flamingo or that of a little Imago
I'm a pink Flamingo, I'm a little Imago, I'm a peacock of the day,
Raziel, Raziel, show the way

I will give you the key, I'll give you the key to feel free Open my mind to the light, my mind to the day light.
